At this point, Mr. Volz enters the office:

QV Did the FBI ever contact you?

A Yes, but I didn't want to talk without a counsellor's advise first, and I didn't make a written statement. They never asked me anything again.

A No

A Yes,

QV You know how to ice skate?

A Then, but not so much now.

QV How good of friends were you with Morris Brownlee?

A Not a good friend - a casual friend.

QV How did he impress you?

A He impressed me as a fellow with something against the world. He cautiously picked out his words and spoke with precision in whatever he said. Then he didn't strike me as being the greatest or the worst.

QV Did he talk politics?

A Some, he seemed very intelligent.

QV Did he have any particular strong interest in politics?
Was he venomous on any particular society?

Water.

A I don't know, I think it was a bay.

QU Do you recall if it was the Holiday Inn?

Qu Who found out that the skating ring in Baton Rouge was closed?

A I found out that there was one in Houston and called to see when the skating ring was open.

Qu Why did you ask Dave to go?

A Melvin, Dave, and I were together at one time. I think what had happened was that Melvin had made a settlement that on some weekend he was thinking about going out of town. I think that either he or I made the suggestion to go to Baton Rouge. Like I said, we wound up in Houston.

Qu Who decided to go to Houston?

A Like I said, something happened and we decided to go to Houston.
